WHAT ABOUT?

Source: Flickr user Garrett

Whether you're working or studying for your diploma, Pompano Beach has you covered. Parents will be pleased to see that Pompano Beach placed third when it came to student-teacher ratio, with 14 students to every teacher. Workers, on the other hand, will be pleased to see that the city ranked fifth when it came to employment and that the commute ranking wasn't too bad, either.

The other area this city excelled in was amenities, where it ranked 18th. The wide spectrum of amenities includes Pompano Beach Golf course, the Curtain Call Playhouse, and more. If you're the festival type, this place has a little of everything, including the Pompano Beach Seafood Festival, the St. Patrick's Irish Festival, the St. Coleman's Italian Festival, a Holiday Boat Parade, and a Holiday Yuletide Parade. Basically, there's something for this 100,154 population city.
